ALL SORTS.

Things will be red hot in Empire tonight.

The meeting here Friday night will be a rouser.

Evidence in the Worden trial is strong against the accused.

More geese were seen flying south last night. A sure sign of a storm.

Miss Millie James departed on last evening's train to attend Mill College.

Before another storm reaches us see Joe Platt and get rigged out in comfortable underwear.

Seven children were burned to death in a tenement house in New York yesterday morning.

Philip Krall, teacher of piano, is ready to receive pupils. For information apply to F. J. Steinmetz or Mrs. McQuarters.

Wm. Owens, a messenger in the Interior department, died yesterday of small pox. The other clerks are down with the disease.

The storms have washed all the names off the Republican posters that are printed in red. The snow-storms on the 6th will wipe out the balance.

Bartine is criticizing Mr. Newlands' stocking. He thinks they cost too much a dozen. Mr. Bartine seems to want to pose as the "Socksless Simpson" of Nevada.

The Italian bark Scutuba, from Philadelphia, September 21, for Naples, was boarded by pirates off Morro Nuevo, Africa, who plundered the vessel of 1000 boxes of petroleum.

Take no stock in political side-shows, be they Democratic or Populist, but keep in the middle of the road and cast your ballot for the Silver State ticket. It will bring the best results to Nevada.

The Tribune hasn't of late made any foolish remarks about our two candidates for County Commissioner. The Tribune has discovered that these two men are very popular with the voters, and both of them will be elected next Tuesday.

The Turnverein dance which is billed for November 2nd promises more enjoyment than anything Carson has had for some time. The young ladies are putting in all their spare moments in the gymnasium, while the gentlemen members are all in training.

Three persons were killed and one fatally injured on the Beech Creek road yesterday by the wrecking of a freight train. The men killed had revolvers and a full kit of burglars' tools, masks, etc. It is supposed they were on their way to Cleveland to crack the county bank.

The Lopez family are very destitute since the head of it died. Subscriptions have been started and Judge Bigelow headed the list with $5. The Silver Central Committee sent a cord of wood. Anything left at any of the newspaper offices will be forwarded to the family.

Dated October 31st, 1894.

Wm. KINNEY, Sheriff.

A Question of Veracity.

The truth of the story that Mr. Doughty called at the office of the Carson Appeal to ascertain further particulars of its editor, one Sam Davis, concerning his (Doughty's) campaign funds, is a matter of veracity between Mr. Doughty and said Davis. Mr. Doughty says that he called on Sam Davis, while Davis says that the Populist nominee for Congress never darkened the doors of the Appeal office. Things being equal, we believe that we are with the majority when we give credence to the word of Mr. Doughty in preference to that of Davis aforesaid. From what we have learned, we judge for the reputation for truth and veracity of the Davis aforesaid is not good in the community in which he lives. The Chronicle loses no opportunity, however, to quote Davis.—Enterprise.

The question of veracity does not lie between the Appeal and Mr. Doughty, but between the Appeal and the Enterprise.

If he ever called at this office neither the editor of the paper or any of the employees of the office were in.

He stated to several parties in this city that he had not called here. We do not believe that Mr. Doughty ever made the statement that he had called at this office demanding a retraction. It was a sneaking and characteristic lie concocted in the fabrication factory of the Republican party, the Enterprise.

The editor of that horrible example of reckless journalism in Virginia City is one of those sneaking liars who in order to crawl out of the responsibility of his lying, attributes the lie to an innocent party so that he will not be held responsible for it.

We reach this conclusion by a general knowledge of the breed of cattle we are discussing. We have never met Mr. Doughty, but we will gamble on the fact that he is not such a whole sale, abandoned, three ply all wool and 42 inches wide liar as the Enterprise man.

If the Enterprise man will induce Mr. Doughty to make the assertion over his signature that he called at this office and interviewed the writer, the Silver Central Committee of Ormsby will send him $100 by Wells Fargo.

Lying About Logan.

The Tribune charges that Robert R. Logan voted for a fifty years extension of the S. P. R. R. debt in the last Legislature. Now as there never was such a bill before the Legislature the statement is false.

Senate Joint Resolution No. 10 was a memorial to Congress asking Congress to provide for the adjustment of refunding of such indebtedness, but their was no fifty years extension mentioned in the memorial. It seems impossible for the Tribune to make any fair or truthful statements connected with the campaign.

E. G. Waite Dead.

San Francisco, Oct. 30.—E. G. Waite, Secretary of State, died early this morning at his home in Alameda after a short illness. His friends attribute his death to general physical collapse, brought on by worry over political matters, he being the independent candidate for re-election as Secretary of State.

Jones at Reno.

Last evening a special car crowded with a number of Carson Silver men came to Reno to hear Jones and Warner. It was the largest meeting ever held at Reno and the speakers were cheered to the echo.

It has changed the tide and insures the county to Silver by a large majority.

Jones and Warner will speak here Friday evening.

The Empire Meeting.

There will be a silver meeting at Empire this evening. The candidates will go down in private conveyances and show themselves to the people of the seaport town.

Mr. Goodwin asserted and reiterated the assertion in his talk the other night that there is no room in the United States for a third party. Had this idea prevailed thirty-eight years ago there would have been no Republican party. The assertion leads a former Republican who heard Mr. Goodwin's speech to ask if he is trying to prove what has so often been changed, that the Republicans and Democrats are Wall Street twins depending on each other, and both agreed that to strike down one will kill both.

The Silver State got out a double-sheet political edition last Saturday that was a hummer. The Appeal wired for 1000 copies and scattered them out with its own edition.

When Johnny Comes Marching Home.

When Jones comes marching home again,

Hurrah! Hurrah!

He cheers the hearts of Silver men,

Hurrah! Hurrah!

For years and years with you and me,

He traveled with the G. O. P.,

But now he's left them all at sea,

(Chorus.) We'll all vote the ticket straight,

When Jones comes marching home.

When he stood pat with Bartine's crowd,

Hurrah! Hurrah!

They all said John P. did them proud,

Hurrah! Hurrah!

But when he saw that British gold,

Had left his party in the cold,

He packed his grip and left their fold,

(Chorus.) We'll all vote the ticket straight,

When Jones comes marching home.

But now John P. is back with us,

Hurrah! Hurrah!

So let poor Coffin rave and cuss,

Hurrah! Hurrah!

A wretched gang that Wall street owns,

So plant their record with their bones,

Then hip hurrah for John P. Jones.

(Chorus.) We'll all vote for Silver straight,

When Jones comes marching home.

Converted.

A Republican who heard Judge Goodwin's speech at the Opera House, says he converted him to the Silver party. "Judge Goodwin," said he, "attributed all of the many ills from which the State and nation now suffer to the demonization of silver by the Republican party, and could give no assurance whatever that the party intends to change its policy. Henceforth I am a straight out silver man. Judge Goodwin converted me, I shall support the Silver ticket from Congressman to Constable, both inclusive.—Journal.

The Czar Worse.

Washington, Oct. 30.—The extremely serious condition of the Czar is shown by the following dispatch received today by Prince Cantacuzun, Russian Ambassador: The condition of the Czar is considerably worse since yesterday. The expectoration of blood is increased by a strong cough.

From the Orient.

London, Oct. 30.—A dispatch to the Pall Mall Gazette from Chee Foo says a fleet of Japanese transports, protected by 10 war ships, has been seen landing troops on the mainland of the Kwang Tung peninsula, north of Elliotts Island.

Notice.

A special meeting of the Board of County Commissioners will be held on Monday Nov. 5th, 1894, at 10 o'clock A. M. All parties having claims against Ormsby county will please present the same at the County Clerk's office on or before Saturday Nov. 3rd.

J. MULLER,

Chairman.

Attest:—

E. AUBRE,

Clerk.

The taxpayers are waiting for the Tribune to show by the official figures that the county has not saved ten thousand a year by the silver administration. Unable to do so it simply inflates it lungs and yells "liar" at the top of its voice.
